READ CAREFULLY

TERMS OF SALE

1. Auction sales ARE NOT approval sales. Read these terms carefully. By submitting bids you agree to the terms set forth below. All coins have been classified by experts and while errors will be gladly corrected NO LOT MAY BE RETURNED WITHOUT WRITTEN PERMISSION. Request to return coins MUST BE MADE WITHIN THREE DAYS OF RECEIPT OF COINS. Gold coins cannot be returned from abroad until an import license is obtained. Returned American merchandise also needs import licenses.
2. All bids are to be by LOT as numbered in the catalogue. When identical bids are received, preference is given to earliest bidder.
3. This is a UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC AUCTION. All bids are entered as received and highest bidder will be the buyer. Mail bidders may feel free to submit any bid they wish and each lot will be purchased for such bidders at the next highest bid over room bidders.
4. Bidders must establish credit or have on deposit 25% of TOTAL bids.
5. Lots will not be available to room bidders at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.
6. Mail bidders will receive their lots promptly after the end of the sale. All ACCOUNTS MUST BE SETTLED PROMPTLY IN U.S. FUNDS, or in other currencies if special arrangements have been made. We reserve the right to charge interest on overdue accounts.
7. Lots delivered in New York City are subject to 5% Sales Tax. Mail buyers in New York State pay 2% Sales Tax.
8. There will be no charge for executing bids but postage and insurance will be added, and a handling charge for heavy lots.
9. Where estimates are given they represent either the owner's idea of value or our professional opinion as to what they should bring. IN ANY EVENT THEY ARE ONLY ESTIMATES AND YOU CAN BID HIGHER OR LOWER. We recommend however, if you want the lot, bid close to or over estimate.
10. All coins are genuine and as described. All descriptions have been written by H. D. Gibbs. Photos are of actual items sold.
11. The buyer who acts as agent for third parties is the only person responsible for his purchases towards the auction house. Third parties refusing to accept coins from the agent are entirely the responsibility of the agent. The auctioneers cannot accept returns from agents because of third parties for any reason whatsoever unless coins were bought with specific special arrangements between the agent and the auctioneers.
12. Lots purchased by floor buyers cannot be returned, unless 10% of price is paid.
13. Minor's bids are not accepted.
14. In case of dispute the decision of the auctioneer is at all times final.

THE STORY OF THE GIBBS COLLECTION

(As told by the owner)

In 1902 on my seventh birthday I was given a handful of foreign coins. My greatest desire soon became the idea of getting at least one coin from every country in the World. In those days ONE CENT was the fee for running an errand or doing a chore . . . a nickel or a dime was something you got once in a while for special occasions, a holiday. By doing without an ice cream cone or a chocolate bar it was possible to get enough money together to buy a minor coin from time to time. As I grew older and the collection grew, for reasons then entirely unknown to me, I was attracted to counterstamped coins . . . all counterstamped coins. Then as time went on the crude coins struck during the sieges, during the revolutions and other periods of necessity intrigued me. Naturally, it was not too long until books from the public library gave me an insight into their meaning and I soon realized that they did have a special appeal because each and every one had a story behind them.

Thus, for the past fifty years or more, few auction sales, dealers lists, attendance at coin conventions, etc. failed to add a few new specimens to my ever rapid growing collection. Retiring in 1951 parts of my collection were sold each year BUT the siege, necessity, obsidional, revolutionary and counterstamped coins were carefully removed and placed in a separate division. Then a few years later this series was broken up. The English were sold in New York, the Dutch in Amsterdam, the German in Munich, the Spanish in Barcelona BUT the American were left until now because they were always my favorite series, especially the cut and/or counterstamped of the West Indies, Philippines, Haiti, Santo Domingo, Puerto Rico and others.

A careful perusal of this catalogue will show, I believe, that no collection as complete and containing so many unique and rare pieces has ever been offered to the collecting public before.

Now a word about CONDITION. To those who want uncirculated, well struck or proof coins, this series is NOT for you. By the very nature of conditions under which almost all these coins were issued such classification is impossible. Coins struck under the most adverse conditions, often on or near the field of battle, often from silver platters, plates, spoons and very often with dies prepared by blacksmiths or ordinary artisans who were not trained die sinkers can hardly be expected to compete with conventional coins made in modern mints. Coins which were counterstamped for special emergency reasons, to raise or lower the value, to authorize their use in places far from their original home were usually struck on worn and often much older coins. In a few cases (such as Puerto Rico) the counterstamping was "supposed" to be ONLY on worn, holed and mutilated coins.

SO . . . be assured that the coins here offered are the best I could buy over the period of many years. Many specimens have been replaced several times as better specimens appeared on the market.

May those of you who are successful in adding these coins to your collections, have as much pleasure as I have had in finding them, owning them, studying their history and passing them on to you.

HOWARD D. GIBBS

THE QUESTION OF CONDITION

When offering for sale any coins the matter of properly describing their condition is important. HOWEVER . . . in the sale of this particular series it should be noted the following facts:

- (a) SIEGE, NECESSITY AND REVOLUTIONARY COINS ARE VERY OFTEN STRUCK IN THE FIELD OR IN EMERGENCY MINTS WHERE THE BEST FACILITIES, TRAINED DIE SINKERS, PROPER METALS, ARE NOT ALWAYS AVAILABLE, Therefore, many such issues are crude, poorly struck. This must be taken into account.
- (b) In some series such as those where coins have been counterstamped to raise or lower the denomination, such coins have invariably been taken from circulations and are seldom uncirculated.
- (c) In some series where coins of many countries have been counterstamped to authorize circulation in the colonial possessions, the coins again are almost always those taken from circulation.
- (d) In some series, such as the counterstamped coins for PUERTO RICO the coins were supposed to be holed, damaged or mutilated as this was the only reason for so counterstamping. When a coin (and there are some) of this series is not holed or mutilated it is RARE.
- (e) Where we have described a coin as "worn, counterstamped so and so, very fine, it means that the coin is worn BUT the counterstamp is very fine, sharp, clear.

DECREE OF 1894

In 1894 the Die of Guatemala $\frac{1}{2}$ Real 1894 was ordered counterstamped on silver dollar-size coins. Those of Peru and Chile were preferred because the laws of these two countries prohibited the circulation of any mutilated coins. A few dollars of other countries were counterstamped and all such are very rare.

BRAZIL — REVOLUTION 1932-1934

A Revolution broke out in Sao Paulo in 1932. A Committee of Finance "CO" (Camphanha) Da (Ouro) or gold campaign was formed. Sympathiers were asked to donate coins to the cause. Since coins circulated for many years in Brazil, many different coins were donated. Such coins were counterstamped with a Helmet./ 1932/C.O. Also issued were 12 gold bars and 100 silver bars. See Numismatic Review Vol. 2, No. 2, October 1944. The Revolt was quelled by President Getulio Vargas in 1934.

Coins all counterstamped "Helmet/1932/C.O."

PUERTO RICO

There were so many holed and mutilated coins in circulation that Luis Daban, Governor, by decree dated Nov. 27, 1884 ordered all such coins counterstamped with a Fleur de lis. Punches were supplied to Custom officials at Fajardo, Guayama, Ponce, Mayaguez, Arecibo, Vieques and San Juan. See Monograph No. 88 — A.N.S. 1940 by Jaime Gonzalez. Note: (Most of the following coins are from the Robert Prann collection). See also "The Money of Puerto Rico" by Maurice Gould and Lincoln Higgin — Whitman 1962.

THE ANDORRA STORY

THE BEAUTIFUL ANDORRA CROWNS

On order of the M.I. Consell de los Valls d'Andorra, the Bavarian State Mint in Munich struck in 1960 a beautiful écu or crown of 50 diners with the bust of Charlemagne, the coin, therefore, was called "Carolus". Only 3000 brilliant proof coins were struck which were sold rapidly. These coins now sell approximately four times the price it was originally offered to the public.

1960 CAROLUS

In 1963 the Bavarian State Mint again on order of the Council issued a commemorative crown or écu of 50 diners honoring Bishop Benlloch, whose life 1864-1926 was devoted to the welfare of Andorra. A half crown of 25 diners was also struck. The 1200 sets struck and distributed in an original box of issue were sold out to subscribers at $50 per set. Immediately however, an additional striking of 1800 separate crowns, also in brilliant proof has been reserved for collectors the world over at a price of $28, S. Frs. 120, Lit. 18,000, Fr. Frs. 140, D. M. 115.

1963 BENILOCH

A recent commemorative issue of 1964 with the head of Napoleon, just released by the Bavarian State Mint and again struck on order of the "Molt Illustre Consell", is one of the popular sets of the year. The 50 diners 1964 and the half dollar size 25 diners so ably engraved by Franz Muller of Munich are available in an official case of issue. 2200 sets are struck and for the collector who only collects crowns, there are 2800 single additional brilliant proof crowns available. The sets and individual crowns are priced like the Benlloch 1963 coins. ($28 for the crown and $50 for the set).

and there is more to tell

Andorra in the past has always been a part of "Greater Catalonia" and, in fact, it is today the only surviving independent remainder of this once important kingdom.

Andorra is an independent principality of 191 square miles resting high in the Pyrenees between France and Spain. Of 12,000 inhabitants only about 5,000 have Andorran Nationality and speak Catalan.

Andorra is five hours by car from Barcelona and two hours by car from France, via breathtaking mountain passes. It is accessible in winter only from the Spanish side. There are no trains or airports.

To celebrate continued freedom and individuality in a troubled European world, the Andorran government has issued the present series dollar-size commemorative coins with the old denomination of 50 diners, and 25 diners respectively.

The only other coins ever issued in Andorra, aside from the coinage featured in this article, were struck 88 years ago. These were two pattern pieces of 5 and 10 centimes made of bronze; they are today valued at $150.00 each.

Postal service is free within the country, being supported by sale of Andorra stamps to philatelists.

The Andorra flag is proudly displayed at official ceremonies, but no nation in the world recognizes it.

Under an old complicated monetary agreement with France and Spain, both currencies, the French franc and the Spanish peseta, are in circulation, but the Andorrans are a proud people and as a matter of national pride they want to have their own national coins.

In order to satisfy both Spanish and French currency regulations, a new coin had to be issued under special legislation. In a series of laws proclaimed by the "Most Illustrious General Council of the Andorran Valleys," it was decided to issue "peces de moneda senso curs legal" (coins without legal tender).

Andorra would like to make these coins the official legal tender but foreign contracts prevent it from doing so. The official Andorran State Journal mentions the issues and lists the income derived therefrom as part of the government revenues.

It is obvious that an issue of this nature is bound to end up with collectors the world over.

The contract between the Andorran government and the Bavarian Government Mint at Munich, which contains the order to strike the coins, has been signed by the "Syndic" in his capacity as head of the Andorran government.

Andorra wants to take its place among the other countries issuing special coinage, such as Austria, Israel, Sierra Leone, Malta, Bermuda, the Vatican, etc., but the Andorran government has limited severely the size of this series.

There will be a total of only eight pieces to wit: The Carolus 1960 50 diners (released in 1963), the same in 25 diners (not yet released), the Benlloch 1963 50 diners and 25 diners (released), the Napoleon 1964 50 and 25 diners (released just now), and the Building of Parliament 1965 50 and 25 diners (expected sometime next year).

The obverses represent the four most important symbols of Andorran history. All issues are extremely small; of most of the 25 diner denomination, a little over a thousand pieces have been or will be struck.

The enormous success of the Andorra crowns so far has started a flood of questions coming in by mail. The questions are many and varied, but all are for more information about the tiny principality, nestled high in the mountains between Spain and France. Not only is time too limited to reply personally to all of the questions, but by answering them here, all collectors interested in Andorra will find some information for their edification and, maybe, delight.

QUESTION: Is Andorra the smallest country in the world?

ANSWER: No, it is not. Monaco is the smallest, $1\frac{1}{2}$ square kilometers, the second is San Marino, 60 square kilometers, the third Liechtenstein, 157 square kilometers. The giant among the little ones is Andorra, with 464 square kilometers. For comparison, Central Park in New York is about $2\frac{3}{4}$ square kilometers.

QUESTION: What makes Andorra such an outstanding country, apart from its size?

ANSWER: Andorra is the only country in the world with two titular heads of State, or, as they are called, Co-Princes. One Prince is the ruling King or President of France, the other Prince, the Bishop of the City of Urgell in Spain.

QUESTION: Was this question of two Co-Princes decided upon after the first World War?

ANSWER: No, it has existed for almost 700 years. In the year 1277 A.D., an agreement was proposed by Pedro, King of Aragon and approved the next year by Pope Martin the IV, whereby the country was to be ruled by two sovereigns, one the Bishop of Urgell (see map) and the other the Count of Foix (see map). Later, the Kings of France also became Counts of Foix. The agreement was signed in the nearby Spanish town of Lerida on September 8, 1278, in the presence of Arnaud de Vall-Llebrera, Notary. The two contracting parties were Pedro de Urg, Bishop of Urgell and Roger Bernard III, Count of Foix. Since France no longer has a king, the President of France takes his place. President de Gaulle is the 47th French Co-Prince. The present Bishop of Urgell, His Excellency Monseigneur Ramon Iglesias i Navarri is the 53rd Spanish Co-Prince.

QUESTION: What has the foregoing to do with coin collecting?

ANSWER: Bishop Benlloch of Urgell is represented on the 1963 Andorra Crowns of 50 and 25 Dinars. Napoleon, the first French head of state who was not a king is represented on the 1964 Andorra Crown and half crown.

QUESTION: When were the boundaries of Andorra established and of how many parishes does the country consist?

ANSWER: The six parishes which form Andorra (see map) united in the year 839 A.D. to form Andorra and, as such, sent an official representative to the Consecration of the Cathedral of Urgell (a beautiful building which certainly is worth a trip to Urgell). On June 13, 1007, Count Ermengol I of Urgell signed a document establishing the present boundaries of the Principality.

QUESTION: Did they invent the name Andorra for that occasion?

ANSWER: No. Hannibal, the African General who in 218 B.C. marched an Army onto Rome, encountered (according to his biographer Polybus) a fierce mountain tribe in the Pyrenee Mountains, whose members called themselves Andosinos or Andorinos.

QUESTION: Is the Coat of Arms of Andorra the fancy of the artist who designed the 1960-1965 silver crowns?

ANSWER: No, the Coat of Arms of Andorra as represented on both the 25 Diner and the 50 Diner pieces has a long history dating back to the year 1293. (see below).

QUESTION: Andorra certainly is too small to govern itself. Has it been ruled in the past by Spain or by France?

ANSWER: Neither one. Andorra is fully independent and is indeed one of the oldest Democracies in the world.

Four representatives are sent by each of the six parishes (see map) to the Capital, Andorra la Vella. These 24 representatives form the "Most Illustrious General Council of the Valleys of Andorra". The Council elects its president, or "Syndic" and a vice-president, or "sub-Syndic".

QUESTION: If the local currencies in Andorra are the Spanish Peseta and the French Franc, a 50 Diner coin must surely be a so-called unauthorized or fantasy piece?

ANSWER: Indeed not! The M.I. General Council assembled at a full dress meeting and authorized the Syndic to have the coins struck. By orders of August 29, 1962 and May 15, 1965 the Syndic officially authorized the striking of the coins at the Bavarian (West Germany) Government Mint.

QUESTION: What is the oldest and most important building in the Capital of Andorra?

ANSWER: The building of Parliament. It will be represented on the 1965 Crowns and half Crowns.

QUESTION: What is the most important room in the building of Parliament?

ANSWER: The kitchen! Andorra is a mountain country with a mean altitude of 6,000 feet, with many peaks reaching to over 10,000 feet. The climate is rugged and, notwithstanding its small size, the representatives of the parishes have to travel a long time going to and coming back from the sessions of the Council. Moreover, democratic process moves slowly and elaborately. As there weren't any hotels in the Capital in the olden days, the Council members did most of their deliberating around the enormous open fire in the kitchen. (N.B. - They slept there too!!). Up to the present day, the tourist can admire the beautiful central room with its square open fireplace and its beautifully handwrought iron spits and other kitchen utensils.

QUESTION: Do the Co-Princes of Andorra receive a remuneration?

ANSWER: The remuneration is purely symbolic. The Bishop of Urgell receives, in tribute of his spiritual leadership, an annual stipend of twelve hams, twelve chickens, twelve cheeses and twelve silver pieces. The salary of the French Co-Prince is considerably less. As tribute for his protection, he only receives three silver pieces. Official ceremonial presentations are still made annually.

QUESTION: Is the income derived from the sale of the Andorran silver pieces used for the benefit of the Council members and the coin dealers?

ANSWER: No, the income is accounted for on the official Government books. Part of it is earmarked for the improvement of the school system.

QUESTION: Who signs a law into effect?

ANSWER: The approval of both Co-Princes is required to pass a law. The Andorrans, a sly mountain people, adroitly play one Co-Prince against the other and it takes forever and a day for laws to be passed. Meanwhile, a very complicated system of old customs prevails.

QUESTION: Haven't historians, through the ages, laughed at this elementary type of government?

ANSWER: No, many have admired it but few have tried to imitate it. Napoleon, who slept here on his way to Spain, is reported to have exclaimed that the system of co-principality was so incredible and useful that it should be preserved in a Museum.

QUESTION: Why is Charlemagne depicted on the 1960 Andorra silver crown?

ANSWER: Carlemany (743-814), as he is called locally, on his way to fighting the Moors assured himself of the cooperation of the local tribes, in exchange for which he granted the Andorran people a charter. As the first skirmishes were hugely successful, Carlemany became the National hero but soon the Andorrans had to return to their farms and there are no records of any battles in which the Andorrans played an important role. However, the charter was confirmed by Charlemagne's son, Louis I (778-840), King of France. Louis' son, Charles the Bald, (823-877) appointed the Count of Urgell overlord of Andorra and gave him the right to collect the Imperial tribute. In 1133, Ermengol VI, Count of Urgell, ceded all rights to extract tribute from the domain to Pedro Berenguer who, at that time, was Bishop of Urgell. However, to the inhabitants of the Andorran Valeys, he specifically ceded all "use and exploitation rights (ad empramentum) of fields, stream and forest." Later, in 1208, the Counts of Foix, by marriage, became heirs to the Counts of Urgell and this is how the two claims to the overlordship of Andorra originated. In 1589, Henry II Prince of Navarre and Count of Foix ascended to the French throne as Henry IV of France, thus establishing the head of the French State, along with the Bishop of Urgell as Co-Prince of Andorra.

QUESTION: Why is it that Andorra, with a population of about 12,000 has to accommodate about 500,000 tourists per year?

ANSWER: There are two reasons and they are very good ones. In the first place, Andorra is an ideal center for winter sports. In early May, while the first harvests are being brought in, there is still good skiing less than three miles away, up in the mountains. The second reason, however, is probably the more valid one! There are no taxes or import duties in Andorra. You can buy Japanese radios, French perfumes, American cigarettes and German Mercedes cars, all duty free. (N. B. - French or Spanish duties are due as soon as you leave the country in either direction.) Small wonder that smuggling is one of the most profitable and popular professions.

QUESTION: Is the official Andorran coat of arms accurately and faithfully represented on the Andorran silver Crowns?

ANSWER: No; one numismatic concession has been made. The oldest representation of the Andorran Coat of Arms is the one on the wall of the building of Parliament, on a stone which itself comes from a still older building. The two cows in the lower right hand quarter are facing out. This, of course, is squarely against all heraldic rules and in many later and present representations, the position of the two cows has been reversed. On all silver Crowns, the cows are facing toward the center of the shield.

QUESTION: What is the origin of the Coat of Arms of Andorra?

ANSWER: The upper left field contains the Miter and Bishop's Staff, of the Bishops of Urgell. The upper right field contains three red bars against a golden background: The emblem of the House of Foix. The lower left hand quarter contains the four red bars on a golden background of the Catalan Kingdom to which the Bishops of Urgell and the Counts of Foix originally were Vassals. The lower right hand field contains the famous cows in red, with silver halters and cowbells on a field of gold; the Coat of Arms of the once powerful House of Béarn, a noble French family which, by the way, also lent its name to the delicious and popular sauce béarnaise.

QUESTION: Does Andorra have a National anthem?

ANSWER: Yes indeed; it begins with "El Gran Carlemany mon Pare" Charlemagne the Great was my father.

QUESTION: What is the meaning of the words Virtus Unita Fortior represented on all Andorran coins?

ANSWER: Translated into English it reads "virtue becomes even more powerful through unity".

QUESTION: Is it not an odd procedure for a country to sell its coins, be they commemorative or other, through a private dealer?

ANSWER: No. In the late Middle Ages, this was done often, and in Catalonia it was the usual procedure. In the year 1352, Pedro III, King of Catalonia, granted the right to mint florins to one Pere Blau and Joan Puer, important bankers of the period. The King collected the sum of "27 sous and 6 Diners" as a royalty for each florin minted. They were struck in gold.

QUESTION: Has the legend "Virtus Unita Fortior" always been the National motto of Andorra?

ANSWER: No. In the late Middle Ages, the phrase of the Counts of Foix was used. It reads "Toca i se gausas" (Touch me if you dare).

QUESTION: Are there any interesting odd customs that have survived from the Middle Ages?

ANSWER: Yes, many. For instance, when a murder has been committed, the corps is officially asked by the bailiff to reveal the name of the murderer.

QUESTION: Does this procedure work?

ANSWER: Yes, apparently; there has not been a murder since 1943.
